II. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE<sup>3</sup>

On May 13, 2015, police curbed a vehicle driven by for failure to yield when exiting an alley. Passenger and subject, was arrested for Obstructing Identification. alleged Chicago Tolice Officers arrested him without probable cause. further alleged that Officer are moved him from a vehicle without cause; and that Officer and Sergean used excessive force when they removed him from the vehicle he was in.
COPA reviewed all relevant reports including the arrest report, original case incident report, case supplementary report, court filings, deposition transcripts, hearing transcript, OEMC event query, court record indicating an Ex/Parte Judgment of Conviction against on the ticket he received in relation to this incident, misdemeanor complaint, and the First Amended Complaint and resulting Settlement Agreement. COPA conducted an audio recorded interview of both and .4 IPRA did not interview the officers and COPA chose to rely on prior sworn statements from the involved officers. No digital evidence was available to COPA. Neither Officer mor Sergeant completed a Tactical Response Report (TRR), and since IPRA did not include this as an allegation, COPA has declined to do so now.
III. LEGAL STANDARD
For each Allegation COPA must make one of the following findings:
1. Sustained - where it is determined the allegation is supported by a preponderance of the evidence
2. Not Sustained - where it is determined there is insufficient evidence to prove the allegations by a preponderance of the evidence;
3. Unfounded - where it is determined by clear and convincing evidence that an allegation is false or not factual; or
4. Exonerated - where it is determined by clear and convincing evidence that the conduct described in the allegation occurred, but it is lawful and proper.
<sup>3</sup> COPA conducted a full and complete investigation of this matter, including the interview of all pertinent civilian and officer witnesses, and the collection and review of digital, documentary, and forensic evidence. As part of COPA's ongoing efforts to increase case closure capacity, certain cases opened under IPRA are summarized more succinctly in a Modified Summary Report of Investigation, pursuant to COPA Guideline Modified Summary Report of Investigation Template and Approvals, effective February 13, 2019. <sup>4</sup> The driver of the vehicle, was interviewed by COPA on June 13, 2018. However, the statement gave is being given little or no weight because his account of events is at odds on issues that are not in dispute. For example, he stated that was driving at the time of the traffic stop which contradicts both and the officers' accounts. As mentioned earlier, received a ticket for the traffic violation. Furthermore, located in was interviewed over the phone, and failed to return either set of documents that were sent to him, to include the sworm affidavit. He did however, state that did spell his name for the officers, he just did not remember how.

A preponderance of evidence can be described as evidence indicating that it is more likely than not that the conduct occurred and violated Department policy. See Avery v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co., 216 Ill. 2d 100, 191 (2005), (a proposition is proved by a preponderance of the evidence when it has found to be more probably true than not). If the evidence gathered in an investigation establishes that it is more likely that the misconduct occurred, even if by a narrow margin, then the preponderance of the evidence standard is met.

Clear and convincing evidence is a higher standard than a preponderance of the evidence but lower than the "beyond-a-reasonable doubt" standard required to convict a person of a criminal offense. See e.g., People v. Coan, 2016 IL App (2d) 151036 (2016). Clear and Convincing can be defined as a "degree of proof, which, considering all the evidence in the case, produces the firm and abiding belief that it is highly probable that the proposition . . . is true." ### IV. ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

COPA finds that Allegation I for Officer Officer of and Sergeant are Not Sustained. There is not enough evidence to determine whether the event occurred in the manner alleged by Brendlin v. California, 551 U.S 249 (2007), established that when a vehicle is stopped the passengers are seized along with the driver. 720 ILCS 5.0/31-4.5A, Obstructing Identification, states: "(a) A person commits the offense of obstructing identification when he or she intentionally or knowingly furnishes a false or fictitious name, residence address, or date of birth to a peace officer who has: (2) lawfully detained the person." In this case, was a passenger in the vehicle driven by which was curbed for failing to yield after exiting an alley. Furthermore, at some time before the traffic stop, the arresting officers heard a radio dispatch that there was a male black with dreadlocks seen in the area with a firearm.
Either Officer or Officer asked for identification.  stated he did not have his ID but gave the officer his name. According to Officer and Officer said his name was and spelled it.  E-Z. According to he simply said his name was and did not spell it.
Office ran the name through the LEADS database and failed to get a result. The officers asked to give them his real information, to which replied that he did not have to give them any information. The officers called for a sergeant after many failed attempts to get clarification on name. Sergeants and arrived on the scene. The scene of the s vehicle. Because there is no corroborating evidence that the officers used more force than was necessary under the circumstances, the allegation is Not Sustained.
5 Officer was issued ticket #
